

This cruise leads from Amsterdam on the North Sea right across Europe as far as the 'golden city' of Prague. Many indeed are the sights to be seen and the experiences to be absorbed on this special journey: visiting important cities such as Cologne, Miltenberg, Wuerzburg and Bamberg and passing through the fascinating Dutch waterways, along the rivers Rhine and Main, and through the man-made waterway – the Rhine-Main-Danube Canal (that forms a vital link between the Danube and the Main). It also includes passing by the Loreley rock (so widely celebrated in verse and music). This cruise is combined with a visit to Prague, the world-famous capital of the Czech Republic and encompasses much of the art and culture that bears witness to thousands of years of European history.
